

ANNUAL LUTEFISK LOVERS', FESTIVAL, MARKETS, PANCAKES, AND MORE LIST FOR 2026-2027 (with updates as of September 14, 2026)

Don't see your event? Please send flyers in .jpg format if possible along with the who, what, when, where, time, price etc to cmadance@earthlink.net

A great way to stay healthy at large events is to wash your hands frequently when possible! Flu, RSV, COVID, and cold season is here!

This 19th annual list has been compiled for Pacific Northwest Lutfisk Lovers since 2007 by Christine Anderson, member of Leif Erikson Lodge 2-001, Sons of Norway, in Seattle; Embla Lodge #2, Daughters of Norway, and Norden Lodge 2-002 in Tacoma.

All information is subject to change, send additions and corrections to cmadance@earthlink.net If you would like to add someone or be taken off the list, please reply to this email. Please send other dinners/bazaars/festivals you find out about into this email. Updates will be published again later in October when the need arises to accommodate changes!

The Festival celebrates the return of the North Pacific fishing fleet to the terminal, works to increase the public's knowledge of the importance of the fishing industry as well as Fishermens' Terminal to Seattle while raising money for the Seattle Fishermen's Memorial Foundation. The Festival provides families with a fun and educational outing on the waterfront as well as an opportunity to learn more about seafood. Hands-on art projects with fishing themes, including the popular wooden boat building and trout pond, are free for all children and admission to the festival is free. Proceeds from the activities within the festival are donated to the Seattle Fishermens Memorial to assist families of fishers lost at sea. While there is no longer a lutefisk eating contest, there is an amazing classic salmon BBQ features salmon smoked the traditional way over wood-fired smokers, a Fishermen's Fall Festival tradition you won't want to miss. And a huge thank you to Trident Seafoods for their generous salmon donation that makes this possible! <https://www.facebook.com/FishermensFallFestival>
